

Belushi's Farm is both a place and a mission. Spread across 93 acres on the Rogue River in Southern Oregon, the farm welcomes friends from near and far for music, celebration and wellness and is home to the Belushi's Farm family of cannabis brands. By sharing the land and its offerings, performer and long-time proponent of cannabis, Jim Belushi, has created a gateway for connection and joy where the sun, water and air make the perfect combination to sustain naturally powerful and beautiful cannabis plants.

The premium house brand of Belushi's Farm.
